

For Immediate Release
Event Date: Thursday Sept. 16, 2010
Contact: Barb Mucci, 330-452-3434 x 605
bmucci@cantonsymphony.org
Photos attached

Canton Symphony Orchestra and Youth Symphony Musicians to Perform in Gervasi Vineyard Art Series

Musicians from the Canton Symphony Orchestra and the Canton Youth Symphony are scheduled to perform Thursday September 16, 2010 as part of The Gervasi Vineyard Art Series. The once monthly summer series features visual and performance artists throughout the grounds of The Gervasi Vineyard and Italian Bistro and in the outdoor pavilion located on the property at 1700 55th St NE, Canton.

September's offering, "Strings in the Vineyards", will showcase the CSO and CYS musicians in the outdoor pavilion. Nancy Patterson, Canton Symphony's principal harp, will perform at 6:00 pm. Canton Youth Symphony members Josh Williams, cello, Jorie Krob, violin and Jennie Krob, violin will perform at 7:00. Canton Symphony Orchestra musicians Michael Kosco, cello and Janice Hall Moore, violin will take the stage at 8:00pm. Admission is free.

For additional information regarding this or any other performances by the Canton Symphony Orchestra or the Canton Youth Symphony visit www.cantonsymphony.org or call the Symphony box office at 330-452-2094 between 10:00am -2:00pm M-F.

Founded in 1937, the Canton Symphony Orchestra is a fully professional ensemble and organization dedicated to performing concerts that enrich, educate and entertain residents of Stark County and beyond. The Canton Symphony Orchestra performs classical, holiday and a variety of educational programs each season at Umstattd Hall, 2323 17th St. NW, Canton, as well as other venues in Stark County. Administrative offices are located in the Cultural Center for the Arts, 1001 Market Ave. N, Canton, Ohio 44702.